earth, and she had things that were private and they were among, between her and Mr. Hall, and that please take them and deliver them to him if anything happened to her.

Q Deliver them to whom?

A Dr. Hall.

Q Did she say anything else to look out for, certain articles, did she tell you there were letters in Dr. Hall's study she wanted taken care of?

A She told me that there were, that she had exchanged them and they were in his study at his home.

Q And whose letters did she say were in his study?

A Hers.

Q And what did she tell you?

A She told me that she was in fear that they may have been pried into.

Q And did she say anything had to be done with them?

A She told me she wanted them taken from him.

Q What did she say the Doctor said about these letters?

A That he had said he would take care of them.

Q Are you familiar with your mother's handwriting?

A Yes, sir, I am.

Q I show you some letters, (Mr. Simpson hands papers to witness).

A These are my mother's.

Q Look at each one of them - don't be careless about them.
